

Play Golf – Fight Cancer, to benefit proton therapy and research

Monday, October 11, 2010
Heathrow Country Club
Lake Mary, Florida

Celebrities for 2010 Play Golf – Fight Cancer

Mr. Doug Dickey

Mr. Doug Dickey, a native of Gainesville, Florida, is a past Florida football quarterback as well as past Gator Football Coach. He has also coached at the University of Tennessee as well as served as the UT Athletic Director. He is a Member of the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame. In 2003, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a Coach.

Mr. Hubert Green

Mr. Hubert Green is a current player on the PGA senior Player's Champions Tour and he is a 2007 inductee to the World Golf Hall of Fame. Mr. Green is a past FSU golfer and graduate. He is a member of the FSU Hall of Fame, the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame and the Southern Amateur Hall of Fame. In 2002 and 2004, he received the Champions Comeback Player of the Year award. In 2004, he also received the American Cancer Life Inspiration Award and at the 2005 Masters Golf Tournament, Mr. Green received the Ben Hogan Award for continuing to be active in golf despite a serious illness.

Mr. John James

Mr. John James is the current executive director of the University of Florida Gator Boosters and is a University of Florida "Gator Great" football player. He is also a 13-year veteran of the NFL where he played on 3 teams, the Atlanta Falcons, the Detroit Lions and the Houston Oilers. John was signed to play football immediately following college by the NFL Atlanta Falcons where he played for 10 years. While with the Falcons, John led the league in Punt attempts and yardage in 1974, 1976, 1977 and 1978. In 1975, John was chosen for his first of 7 Pro Bowl Selections. John has been the executive director of the University of Florida Gator Booster Organization since 1986.

Mr. Jack Youngblood

Mr. Jack Youngblood, a "Gator Great", has received countless awards throughout his college and pro football careers. Many believe him to be one of the greatest defensive players of all time. He is considered one of the best defensive lineman in Gator history as well as one of the top five players ever in the University of Florida football program. Some of the many awards he has received over the years include: election to the All American Football Team and to Sports Illustrated All time High School Football Team in 1989. In the NFL Jack was a 5 times All Pro Team member and a 7 times Pro Bowl Selection member. He was selected in multiple years as the NFC Defensive Player of the Year as well as the Los Angeles Rams MVP. Some of his awards over the years include: Election to the College Football and NFL Football Halls of Fame, the NFL's 1970's All-Decade Team, the St. Louis Rams Ring of Fame and the University of Florida's Ring of Honor, the 100-year anniversary Gator Football Team and the 1999 Rams All Century Team. Since retiring from pro football, Jack has been active in business, television, radio, sports broadcasting and acting where he received an Emmy nomination for 'Best Supporting Actor' in 1988.